Commencing at 11am at the Brooks Suite, Silverlake Stadium,
Stoneham Lane, Eastleigh, SO50 9HT

Notes from the Rostrum

Hello and a very happy New Year to you all.

With 15 lots on offer and still available at the time of going to print, we look forward to seeing you at our sale being held on Tuesday 10th of February 2026. Coupled with the recent reduction in interest rates, we have seen an increase across the board in viewing levels and legal pack downloads, a good indication that parties are preparing themselves to be able to bid. We are certainly excited at the prospect at having a busy auction room.

As ever, we have an eclectic mix of properties which I will briefly run through with you. Starting on the Isle of Wight we have a tenanted studio apartment in Cowes guided at £60,000 with a rent of £550.00 per calendar month. On the mainland we have a block of investment flats located on the seafront at Hayling Island guided at £1,450,000, with tenants in situ currently yielding £82,392 annually.

In the tranquil village of St Mary Bourne we have a two-bedroom semi-detached house in need of complete modernisation guided at £155,000. Alternatively, if you are looking for a property that is ready to move into, we have a detached 3-bedroom fully modernised house in Bedhampton, Havant guided at £400,000. If commercial properties are more up your street, excuse the pun, Amanda Court in Gosport offers three shops, two garages and the freehold of the entire block guided at £285,000. If not in Gosport, then maybe Winchester Road in Chandlers Ford, which offers the opportunity of purchasing a freehold building incorporating a commercial building to the ground floor with offices above, and parking to the rear guided at £135,000.

Heading back over to the Isle of Wight, we have a distinctive, Grade II listed, a uniquely converted, three-bedroom manor house in Ventnor guided at £270,000. If you are wanting to live in the New Forest, The Yews, Hare Lane is situated in New Milton and requires extensive modernisation. We also understand that, subject to the usual planning permissions, The Yews could be demolished to become a building plot, this fantastic opportunity is guided at £270,000. If living on one level is more suited to your way of life, 17 Hope Road, West End is a 1950s semi-detached bungalow, and although needing a full schedule of refurbishment, the finished article could be beautiful. This has been guided at £225,000.

Calling all investors, we have a ground floor flat with garage, in Chichester Road, Portsmouth, guided at £80,000, which has been partially modernised with a south facing rear garden, also, 78-80 Waverley Road is a vacant and spacious top floor two-bedroom apartment located in the heart of Southsea. If they don't take your fancy, then we have three flats available guided at £100,000. Arnwood Court, Gosport is a three-bedroom maisonette with tenants in situ currently achieving £1,093 per calendar month. In Southampton, 14 Maritime Chambers, is a one-bedroom third floor vacant flat which until recently, had been receiving a rent of £950.00 per calendar month. Guided at £108,000, Lyburn Court, Southampton is a vacant one-bedroom flat within walking distance of the General Hospital and has the additional benefit of a garage. Our last available flat is White Star Place, central Southampton and is guided at £120,000. This purpose built two-bedroom flat could command a rental income of £1,100 - £1,200 per calendar month and has allocated parking.

As you can see, from the above and by looking through the catalogue, there's a great mix of properties available to you and hope that something has caught your eye. The legal packs are starting to appear on a daily basis, and if, you have any specific enquiries about any of the properties listed, please feel free to contact myself, Gary or Jo on 023 8047 4274 or auctions@pearsons.com. Equally, if you have a property to sell that you think might be suitable for auction, please contact us or one of the branches.

I look forward to seeing you on the day and wish you the best of luck with your bidding!

Did you know?

Just like the humble tea bag, we are celebrating 125 years of bringing friends and families together.

The tea bag was first patented in the early 1900's by Roberta Lawson and Mary McLaren from Wisconsin. The 'Tea Leaf Holders' were originally hand-sewn fabric bags. Legend has it the popular brew was actually created by accident. The loose tea leaves were intended to be removed from the bags by customers, but found it easier to brew the tea with the tea leaves still enclosed in the porous bags. It was almost 40 years later that the now-common rectangular tea bags were invented.

1. The bidder must complete a separate authority form for each Lot involved, and provide a clearing bank cheque for 10% of the maximum amount of the bid for each Lot. Please note the minimum deposit for any telephone bid is £3,000 per lot.
2. The form must be sent to, or delivered to: Pearsons, 62 High Street, West End, Southampton, SO30 3DT to arrive before 6pm two working days prior to the start of the auction. It is the bidder's responsibility to check that the form is received by Pearsons and this can be done by telephoning the office.

The bidder shall be deemed to have taken all necessary professional and legal advice and to have made enquiries and have knowledge of any announcements to be made from the rostrum of any amendments relating to the relevant Lot. Announcements can and should be checked by bidders on the day before the auction however the Auctioneers will advise the bidders of any announcements as soon as possible prior to the Auction.
4. In the case of telephone bids, at about the time that the Lot come up for auction attempts will be made to contact the bidder by telephone and, if successful, the bidder may then compete in the bidding.
Otherwise the Auctioneers will not bid except by prior written arrangement.

6. In the case of written bids, Pearsons staff will compete in the bidding up to the maximum of authorisation.
7. Pearsons reserve the right not to bid on behalf of telephone/written bidders, in the event of any error, doubt, omission, uncertainty as to the bid, or for any reason whatsoever, and give no warranty, or guarantee, that a bid will be made on behalf of the bidder and accept no liability.

It is the bidder's responsibility to obtain confirmation of receipt on a copy of the withdrawal notification signed by one of the Auctioneers and without such a receipt the authority stands and any subsequent Contract is binding on the bidder.
13. If the bidder, or an agent, actually bids at the auction without having previously withdrawn the authority, the Auctioneer is at liberty to accept such a bid in addition to any bid from Pearsons staff as empowered under the telephone/written authority. Common Auction Conditions

Introduction

The Common Auction Conditions have been produced for real estate auctions in England and Wales to set a common standard across the industry. They are in three sections:

Glossary

The glossary gives special meanings to certain words used in both sets of conditions.

Auction Conduct Conditions

The Auction Conduct Conditions govern the relationship between the auctioneer and anyone who has a catalogue, or who attends or bids at the auction. They cannot be changed without the auctioneer's agreement.

These conditions are set out in a two-part notice to bidders in the auction catalogue, part one containing advisory material – and part two the auction conduct conditions.

Sale Conditions

The Sale Conditions govern the agreement between each seller and buyer. They include general conditions of sale set out herein. The sale of each lot is also subject to special conditions of sale, tenancy and arrears schedules which are available from the auctioneer.

Important Notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant;
- Read the conditions;
- Inspect the lot;
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries;
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot;
- Check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate;
- Have finance available for the deposit and purchase price;
- Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable;

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer.

If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

Glossary

This glossary applies to the auction conduct conditions and the sale conditions.

Wherever it makes sense:

- singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words;
- a "person" includes a corporate body;
- words of one gender include the other genders;

Someone who has a copy of the catalogue or who attends or bids at the auction, whether or not a buyer.

Auction conduct conditions

A1. Introduction

A1.1 Words in bold blue type have special meanings which are defined in the Glossary.

A1.2 The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disapproved or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

A2. Our role

A2.1 As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- a) prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller;
- b) offer each lot for sale;
- c) sell each lot;
- d) receive and hold deposits;
- e) sign each sale memorandum; and
- f) treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by these auction conduct conditions.

A2.2 Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final.

A2.3 We may cancel the auction, or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots. A lot may be sold or withdrawn from sale prior to the auction.

A2.4 You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

A3. Bidding and reserve prices

A3.1 All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.

A3.2 We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why.

A3.3 If there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final.

A3.4 Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price (which may be fixed just before the lot is offered for sale). If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.

A3.5 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all the bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.

A3.6 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price but not always – as the seller may fix the final reserve price just before bidding commences.

A4. The particulars and other information

A4.1 We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. The particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.

A4.2 If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.

A4.3 The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

A4.4 If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

A5. The contract

A5.1 A successful bid is one we accept as such (normally on the fall of the hammer). This condition A5 applies to you if you make the successful bid for a lot.

A5.2 You are obliged to buy the lot on the terms of the sale memorandum at the price you bid plus VAT (if applicable).

A5.3 You must before leaving the auction:

- a) provide all the information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the sale memorandum (including proof of identity if required by us);
- b) sign the completed sale memorandum; and
- c) pay the deposit.

A5.4 If you do not we may either:

- a) as agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the contract and offer the lot for sale again; the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or
- b) sign the sale memorandum on your behalf.

A5.5 The deposit:

- a) is to be held as stakeholder where VAT would be chargeable on the deposit were it to be held as agent for the seller, but otherwise is to be held as stated in the sale conditions; and
- b) must be paid in pounds sterling by cheque or by bankers draft made payable to Pearson Southern Ltd on an approved financial institution. The extra auction conduct conditions may state if we can accept any other form of payment.

A5.6 We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until the deposit has been received in cleared funds.

A5.7 If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract then:

- a) you are personally liable to buy the lot even if you are acting as agent; and
- b) you must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the seller incurs as a result of the buyer's default.

A5.8 Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot.

A6. Extra Auction Conduct Conditions

A6.1 Despite any special conditions to the contrary the minimum deposit we will accept is £3,000 (or the total price, if less). A special condition may, however, require a higher minimum deposit.

General conditions of sale

Words in bold blue type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

These general conditions (including any extra general conditions) apply to the contract except to the extent that they are varied by special conditions or by an addendum.

G1.4 The lot is also sold subject to such of the following as may affect it, whether they arise before or after the contract date and whether or not they are disclosed by the seller or are apparent from inspection of the lot or from the documents:

G1.7	The lot does not include any tenant's or trade fixtures or fittings.	Transfer	G10.4 Apportionments are to be calculated on the basis that: a) the seller receives income and is liable for outgoings for the whole of the day on which apportionment is to be made; b) annual income and expenditure accrues at an equal daily rate assuming 365 days in a year, and income and expenditure relating to some other period accrues at an equal daily rate during the period to which it relates; and c) where the amount to be apportioned is not known at completion apportionment is to be made by reference to a reasonable estimate and further payment is to be made by seller or buyer as appropriate within five business days of the date when the amount is known.
G1.8	Where chattels are included in the lot the buyer takes them as they are at completion and the seller is not liable if they are not fit for use.	G5.1 Unless a form of transfer is prescribed by the special conditions: a) the buyer must supply a draft transfer to the seller at least ten business days before the agreed completion date and the engrossment (signed as a deed by the buyer if condition G5.2 applies) five business days before that date or (if later) two business days after the draft has been approved by the seller ; and b) the seller must approve or revise the draft transfer within five business days of receiving it from the buyer .	G11. Arrears
G1.9	The buyer buys with the full knowledge of: a) the documents , whether or not the buyer has read them; and b) the physical condition of the lot and what could reasonably be discovered on inspection of it, whether or not the buyer has inspected it.	G5.2 If the seller remains liable in any respect in relation to the lot (or a tenancy) following completion the buyer is specifically to covenant in the transfer to indemnify the seller against any liability.	Part 1. Current rent
G1.10	The buyer is not to rely on the information contained in the particulars but may rely on the seller's conveyancer's written replies to preliminary enquiries to the extent stated in those replies.	G5.3 The seller cannot be required to transfer the lot to anyone other than the buyer , or by more than one transfer .
